Mr. Allen Holmes
Deputy Assistant Secretary
for European Affairs
Department of State
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Holmes:

Thank you for testifying before my Subcommittee on H.J.Res. 220, a Resolution to honor Raoul Wallenberg.

Your testimony was interesting and forthright, and helpful to the Subcommittee in understanding the important issue of honorary citizenship.

As you may know, at the conclusion of the hearing, the Subcommittee unanimously reported the Resolution honoring Mr. Wallenberg favorably to the full Judiciary Committee.

I look forward to hearing from you about a briefing on the classified material regarding Mr. Wallenberg's case. As we discussed at the hearing, I think the members of the Subcommittee will find it helpful to have a complete picture based on the information in the State Department files.
